VOLUME 51—NO. 12
OLDEST PAPER IN WESTERN KENTUCKY

HICKMAN, FULTON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, JULY 22, 1910.

WHOLE NO. 2614
ESTABLISHED IN THE YEAR 1859

Pete Gougher Drowned.

Peter Gougher, a well known resident of West Hickman, was drowned in Hamby Pond, five miles below Hickman, some time Tuesday afternoon.

No particulars as to the cause of his drowning are to be had. The unfortunate man was alone and the circumstances surrounding the tragedy will forever remain a mystery. An empty boat, drifting with the wind, the barking and antics of a faithful dog were the only evidence that the waters of the lake had closed over another victim. Mr. Gougher left Tuesday at noon with his rod and gun for a few hours hunting and fishing. He was exceptionally fond of this sport and often went alone. Late Tuesday afternoon passing residents of the vicinity heard his dog barking and were attracted to the lake. There they saw the boat drifting; in it were a fishing pole, tied up as though the fisherman was ready to start home, and his gun, but the occupant was not to be found.

The news of his disappearance was quickly spread and a search instituted. Knowing that Gougher was subject to epileptic spells, which rendered him helpless for a time, the truth was readily surmised. He had been attacked by one of these spells, and fell from the boat and drowned. Friends and loved ones searched for 24 hours before the body was recovered. There was no way of telling where to drag and it was by mere chance that he was found near the shore in not over four feet of water. Finding of the body in water of that depth was a further indication that deceased fell from the boat while in a condition as mentioned above, because he was an expert swimmer and could have even waded out from this point.

The body was brought to town and funeral services held by Rev. Wilson at the home of the deceased's sister, Mrs. Virgil Hodge, about 8:30 Wednesday night. After the last sad rite was performed, a funeral procession wended its way through the darkness of night to the city cemetery and the body consigned to the grave at 9 o'clock. This is probably the only burial that has taken place in this city at night since the awful yellow fever epidemic a generation ago.

Peter Gougher was a carpenter by trade; born and reared in this city. He was about 30 years of age and is survived by two brothers—Sam and Jeff—and two sisters—Mrs. Virgil Hodge and Mrs. Jas. Hunt, all of whom reside in Hickman.

Peace to his ashes.

ELLISON BROTHERS

Union Meeting Sunday.

On account of the rain last Sunday evening the union meeting at the Court House was postponed until next Sunday evening. The program for this occasion is as follows:

Subject—"Are the churches of Hickman of any use?"
"Why such a question asked?"—Rev. H. J. Geiger.
"Why such a condition?"—Rev. W. G. Stockton.
"The mission of the Church."—Rev. D. W. Bryant.
"The Remedy."—Rev. A. Turkington.
Closing with a short talk by Rev. G. W. Wilson.

Lone Carroll, of Madrid Bend, was fined $1 and costs in Judge Naylor's court Wednesday for breach of the peace. The defendant wore a few yards of bandages around his head, the result of a little encounter with Dr. John Adams, of the same place. The people of the Bend are a very considerate lot of folks. After skinning Carroll's head, Dr. Adams took him to his office and dressed his wounds. The doctor's kindness and unkindness were about evenly balanced and the court did not see fit to fine him for the part he played.

Mrs. J. M. Reid is spending a few days at Monticello.

Mrs. Mark Chenault, of Bardwell, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Noonon.

Circuit Clerk J. W. Morris has returned from a short stay at Dawson Springs.

Clifford Adams and wife left last night for Birmingham, Ala., to visit relatives for ten days.

Should Get Busy.

The amount necessary to make the building of the $10,000 Mississippi Valley Transportation Co. wharf in this city a sure go has not been subscribed. Our business men will certainly not allow this proposition to go by. The difference in freight rates that will be brought about by this company's operations will save business men of Hickman almost what they are asking of us in one year. Besides this, the very best financiers of this city pronounce the investment a good one. Why not get busy and sell this stock and let the work go ahead.

If the stock is not sold, its a cinch the boats will not stop here, as they can only be loaded and unloaded where they have uniform equipment. Now is the time to do something.

Dodd Sues for $20,000.

Rev. M. E. Dodd, pastor of a Paducah Baptist Church, has filed suit against the Fulton Daily Leader and W. W. Meadows, J. F. Fall, R. M. Chowning, Smith & Roach, Herbert Carr, Frank Carr, Guy Freeman, J. A. Milner, Lon Jones, Homra Bros., Sam McCall, D. T. Creedle, George Creedle, U. S. Thacker, W. Y. Eaker, M. W. Lewis, Bob May, Guy Tucker, Faris Nalfeh, Walter Willingham, A. T. Church, Gus Fields, W. W. Gourley, J. R. Milner, Joe Hurst, W. P. Hughes, E. C. Reeds, E. L. McMillan and P. O. Harris composing the Business Men's League, of Fulton for $20,000 damages.

Dodd in his petition alleges he was slandered in a recent issue of the Leader in the department conducted by the High License people in the recent local option election.

The petition is a lengthy one, and recites in detail the articles in which Dodd claims he was slandered.

This is the first suit filed as a result of the local option election, but we understand there will be several more filed.

Fulton Goes "Dry."

While bands played, people sang, prayed and marched through the streets, the voters of Fulton decided the saloon question yesterday. No trouble was had to speak of.

The dries won by a margin of 17 votes.

The Leader will say that the election will likely be contested, but some of the most reliable gentlemen of Fulton inform us that it will not be, and that the question is settled for the present.

A big majority of the citizens of the county are pleased with the result. The saloon is ultimately a curse to any town and its surrounding territory. Fulton will be bigger and better without the rum shop by reason of better citizenship. All this fuss and feathers to the contrary is all hog wash. The revenue question will also adjust itself without the town going broke. Now, if the opposition will co-operate with the dries in putting the bootlegger out of business, Fulton will be one of the best little towns in the state.

Corn is growing some.

"Is the Church Only a Joke?" Asks Hickman's Presbyterian Pastor.

This is an age of rush and hurry; a time when men are "cutting out" the superfluous, the useless, the meaningless. We have no time to waste with the things that bring us no profit. Every time a dollar is turned over we expect it to yield an increase. This is evidently the spirit of the times. The only question is concerning the ability to discriminate between profit and loss. When once a man is certain that an enterprise is profitable to him he concentrates his best efforts toward the maintenance of that enterprise. This is a right view of the matter, to be sure. While we recognize the correctness of this view, we also recognize the imperfection of the faculty of discrimination.

Now, the same rule is applicable to the Church. Why are our sanctuaries not crowded when the time comes for such? Why is there so little interest in matters concerning the church? (I mean all denominations.) Why do the mass of people be added unto you?" No! the Church is not a "joke" but a living, powerful reality.

In the near future something will take place in Christendom that will open the eyes of some of these blind people. Better get in line. It's too late when we've wasted a life and then offer the ragged, blighted thing to the Church and to God.

What is the matter with Hickman, anyway? I learned before I ever saw the town that its people, as a mass, did not attend Church. That's your reputation, not only at home, but everywhere you are known. Do you care that this is your name? Are you willing that just a few in your town take the responsibility of maintaining the most important of all institutions? Wake up and rally.

W. G. STOCKTON.

Hugh Ed Curlin was here on business Tuesday.

enjoy everything else before the Church? Is the Church of no meaning to us? Is it not a profitable enterprise? Could we get along just as well without it? Is it only a "joke" after all? If all this be true, we had better abandon the whole thing and relegate it to the domain of superfluity.

Even some who support the Church do it as if the minister were a poor unfortunate being who is so constituted that he is compelled to unload on somebody, his miserable Hamletics and Theology, and who does not know how to do anything else; and, of course to relieve the "poor fellow" they support the church and go out now and then and listen to him "unload," but grumble if it takes him over thirty minutes to do it—all for pity's sake. Has the church become of no effect in Hickman? People do not "line up" with the Church because they regard it unprofitable.

"For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." This is a universal law which has no exceptions.

How many of these "non church-goers" would like to remain in Hickman if all church influences were taken away? VERY FEW. Then why continue living a parasitical life—reaping the rich benefits of that which you never support, and to which you prefer everything else? It is right to enjoy all these temporal pleasures, if rightly done. "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness and all these things shall

RIOT BREAKS UP REVIVAL

Tar and Feathers for Evangelist and Injunction Threatened Near Pittsburg, Pa.

Pittsburg, July 20.—A pentecostal revival at Homestead was broken up by a mob of 4,000 persons, the crowd having become disgusted at the sight of 40 men and women groveling for hours in the straw in front of the evangelist's platform. The mob turned off the lights in the big tent and then, switching them on again, broke into the circle of prostrate converts. Many persons were hurt in the "rush for safety."

Rev. E. A. Fisher, the main exhorter, asked a Pittsburg court to restrain all persons from interfering with the meetings. Threats of tar and feathers parties are being made by relatives of women attracted by the evangelists.

STRIKERS RULE MILES OF RAIL

GRAND TRUNK SYSTEM TIED UP BY WALKOUT OF CONDUCTORS AND TRAINMEN.

NEW ENGLAND LINES HURT

Trains Through Central Vermont Cease to Run When Strike Order Goes into Effect—Both Sides Determined to Win.

Montreal, July 20.—"It is a fight to a finish," is the slogan sounded by both the officials of the Grand Trunk system, and the leaders of the 15,000 employees who are out for higher wages. The union leaders report every member of the organizations affected had obeyed the strike order and that within a few hours scarcely a wheel will be turning on the 5,250 miles of railway.

"There will be no interference in service," was the declaration of the company officials. The importation of strikebreakers, both on the Grand Trunk and the Central Vermont, is being rushed. Hundreds of men are already at the division points to take the strikers' places and hundreds more are on the way. Several clashes have already been reported.

Railroad traffic in many cities and towns in New England is crippled. Train schedules, both passenger and freight, are being changed, but despite efforts of the railroad officials, thousands of dollars' worth of perishable goods will be ruined and passengers will be delayed for hours at junction points.

Shippers throughout Central New England are holding up their goods, fearful of having them stalled. Early notices were posted stating that perishable goods and live stock would be accepted only "subject to delay."

No trains are running over the Grand Trunk from Buffalo.

Vice-President James Murdoch of the Brotherhood of Trainmen said:

"The men are firm and we have plenty of funds for a long struggle. We are fighting for the wages set by the board of conciliation and we mean to get them."

President Hayes of the road said: "We have done all in our power to avoid trouble, and now a fight has been forced on us, we will maintain the position we believe to be right."

The company now has under control 5,259 miles in the United States and Canada, with a capitalization of $230,000,000. The main lines are the Canada Atlantic, Grand Trunk Western, the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee, and the Toledo, Saginaw & Muskegon.

French Strike Postponed.

Paris, July 20.—The employees of the French railways will remain at work in spite of the authorization of the general strike, until new plans for conciliation, now under way, have passed the crucial point.

The meeting, called by the engineers and firemen, for late in July, is regarded as the important point in the threatened trouble. The railroads, however, continue their preparations to run their lines with non-union men in the event of a walkout. The employees who went out have returned to work.

Trinidad, Colo., July 20.—The dead bodies of Roy Keller, superintendent of the Delagua power plant, and Miss Elizabeth Bennett, 16 years old, to whom Keller is said to have been engaged to marry, were found upon the floor of the power plant.

It is supposed that Miss Bennett accompanied Keller to the plant while he made some repairs. While at work a live wire is thought to have electrocuted him and that the girl met a similar fate in attempting to assist him.

Flame Shot One Hundred Feet High From Meter—Count Unnerved by This His Latest Misfortune.

Friedrichshafen, Germany, July 20.—The ill fate that is following Count Zeppelin was exhibited again when the gas works of his airship plant here blew up, injuring seven persons. The shock was terrific, blowing out the walls of the building, razing nearby cottages and seriously damaging dirigibles in the hanger.

The explosion occurred about noon the gasometer blowing up. A flame shot to a height of more than a hundred feet, setting fire to the debris. For a time the hanger on the lake appeared doomed.

The report aroused the country for miles around, crowds flocking to the scene. Physicians were summoned and a field hospital was constructed. Besides the seven seriously hurt, fully a score of employees were slightly injured.

Coming on top of the recent wreck of the dirigible, this disaster appeared to unnerve the count greatly. The plant was needed for the reconstruction of the wreck. The loss is probably $250,000.

Pills and firmly believe that if it were not for them, I would now be a equally as difficult. My head often ached and at times I became so dizzy

Columbus, Ga., July 20.—"Speaker Cannon is the meanest man God ever permitted to live," said Congressman Clayton of Alabama, speaking here on Three-Word Will Set Aside.

Richmond, Va., July 20.—In the su-will of the late George T. Smith, which is composed of the three words,

"Everything is Lou's," was held to be invalid, and a writ of error was granted to Samuel H. Smith, appellant, against Loula G. Smith, appellee. The will offered for probate consisted of but three words on the page of a book issued by the Southern Railroad company to its employees and meant for keeping records on trains. The error assigned is the action of the probate court of Alexandria in admitting such a paper to probate.

PROSPECTOR ENDS LIFE

Body Is Found, With a Little Metal in Pockets, in Snow of Range.

Steamboat Springs, Colo., July 20.—
The body of a disheartened prospector, thought to have been Henry Her-get, probably of Providence, R. I., was found in the perpetual snow of the Gore mountain range.

It is believed the man committed suicide after failing in his quest and, waiting too long, being overtaken by the heavy snow and caught without bedding, tools or food. A revolver was found by the side of the body.
A little gold was found in the man's pockets. The body was brought here.

EDUCATION IN SOUTH

LEGISLATURES HAVE GOTTEN BUSY IN THE MATTER.

Taxes for School Purposes Show That Adequate School Accommodations Are Provided.

Washington, D. C.—A bulletin prepared by Prof. Edward C. Elliott of the University of Wisconsin and issued by the United States bureau of education, says, with special reference to school buildings and sites in the South:

The most obvious evidence of the expansion and growth of public education is to be found in the number of legislative measures intended to provide reader means and larger resources for securing better and adequate material school accommodations. With few exceptions, these measures have been included under the heading of local bonds and indebtedness.

The omission of legislation of a special and local character from the present classification does not permit detailed presentation of the very large number of measures enacted in the Southern states authorizing the levying of taxes or the contraction of indebtedness by particular communities for the purpose of building and equipping new public schools.

In fact, though, the latter measures are in themselves a sign of the energy and enthusiasm with which the South is attacking its education problem.

GOMPERS GETS AGREEMENT

Warfare With Buck Stove & Range Company Ends.

Cincinnati, Ohio.—A peace pact of great importance to organized labor and to the country as well was arrived at here between officers of the American Federation of Labor on one side and members of the Stove Founders' National Defense Association on the other. The effect of the agreement is to end the bitter warfare between the Federation of Labor and the Buck Stove & Range Company of St. Louis.

The association and the stove company, through its representatives here, announced their withdrawal from the prosecutions against President Gompers, Vice-President John Mitchell and Secretary Morrison of the American Federation of Labor in the contempt cases now pending against them.

Whether the appeal of these men from jail sentences imposed upon them for alleged violation of an injunction shall be fought to a finish in the supreme court is said to rest now with Attorney-General Wickersham.

Until the meeting of the officials of the Buck Stove Company and labor officials in St. Louis, it will not be known whether the company is to become a union shop.

BABY KILLED BY SNAKES

Alleged Colored Girl Lowered Child Into Old Well.

New Orleans, La.—Suspected of having lowered a white infant into an old well, wherein was a nest of venomous snakes, Lucinda Richardson, an 11-year-old negress, is now being searched for by the authorities in connection with the death of little Louisa Parr, a 19-month-old white child, whose swollen, fang-marked body was found in a well in the rear of the shack in which the negro family lived.

The negroes and the Parr family lived in adjoining places. There had been bickering between the two families and in this neighborly warfare the little colored girl is said to have taken an active part, even to the extent of warning the mother of the white child to keep the little one from the colored yard or "something would happen."

The last that was seen of the little white girl was when she crawled through a chicken hole into the negro yard. She was missed shortly afterward. Search was instituted. Finally the searching party opened a well in the negro yard and a water moccasin snake crawled out. There were several more snakes in the well, and they were dispatched. Then the body of the little child was found beneath the surface of the 2 feet of water in the hole. The corpse was marked by the fangs and was badly swollen. The arrest of the negro girl was ordered at once, but it was found that she left two hours before.

Frozen in July.

Newark, N. J.—Frozen to death in mid July, with the temperature hovering around 90 degrees, was the fate of Paul Sorrente. Sorrente was overcome by the intense heat of his work and a physician advised placing ice about his head. Eager friends took the advice too literally and placed large cakes of ice about his head, neck and limbs. The young man's family recalled the physician, who discovered that his patient had been dead some time. Examination showed that too much ice had actually frozen the man.

It is estimated that 385,940 acres are planted in tobacco in Kentucky this year as against 355,446 acres in 1909, an increase of 30,000 acres. The reports from some counties are very discouraging while other counties report that plants were never set out under more favorable conditions and that they were strong and have grown well and promise record yields. About half the acreage in white Burley.
